REPUBLIC OF BELORUSSIA

Dear colleagues,

With our deep and big sorrow, we regret to hear that Mr Aleksander Vasiljevic Kucinski, President of the Association, suddenly passed away.

We have been collaborating with Mr. Kucinski for many years, within International Banking Council. His energy, enthusiasm and positive attitude were always precious part of our meetings and gatherings. We will miss his expertise and great contribution to the international banking and international cooperation.

On behalf our Management, Employees and our Members, Association of Serbian Banks would like to extend the condolence to you, and to the members of the Association of Belarusian Banks.

Wishing you courage, strength and all our support. We stay at the disposal to help you through this loss during this difficult times.

Truly yours,

SECRETARY GENERAL
